

Dave Johnson thrives amidst controlled chaos, whether it's keeping pace with his two lively toddlers, Zac and Stella, or expertly steering the course of multiple real estate transactions. For over half a decade, Dave has distinguished himself as a top Global Real Estate Advisor and Broker Associate at Sierra Sotheby's International Realty. His hallmark traits? Integrity, sharp negotiation skills, industry expertise, and a dash of fun - all attested to by clients, colleagues, and friends.

Before his foray into real estate, Dave was the much-loved face of the local morning news, anchoring the top-rated "Good Morning Reno" on KOLO 8. It was during this chapter of his life that he crossed paths with Sarah Johns, the channel's evening news anchor. Their professional camaraderie blossomed into a personal bond, and they've now celebrated seven years of marital bliss. While Dave excels in real estate, Sarah shines as the President & CEO of NCET.

In every realm of his life, Dave embraces challenges with enthusiasm and precision, making him not just a trusted realtor but a pillar in his community and home
