

Michelle Barney is a second-generation real estate professional in Northern Nevada. With over 17 years of experience, she specializes in residential sales, property management, and broker management. A graduate of White Pine County High School in Ely, NV, Michelle furthered her education in Business Management in Madison, SD, before returning to Northern Nevada in 1997.

Family is central to Michelle; all her immediate family members live within a 30-mile radius, and most of her activities revolve around them. Deeply involved in her community, Michelle is an active member of the Fernley Main Street America, Fernley Chamber of Commerce, Fernley Builder's Association, and Moose Lodge #2468.

In 2020, she took her passion for real estate a step further by founding Nevada Prime Real Estate. As the owner and broker, Michelle offers her clients and agents unparalleled professional and personal services tailored to their individual needs.
