

You have indicated that you would like to pursue Mediation through the Dispute Resolution Services (DRS) provided by Sierra Nevada REALTORS[®]. Please be aware that, when filing a Request for Mediation, the issue being decided upon is a monetary dispute. The purpose of filing a Mediation Request is to bring the Complainant(s) and the Respondent(s) to the Association of REALTORS[®] as opposed to litigation, which is costly. For this reason, Mediation is a service offered to members of Sierra Nevada f REALTORS[®] and/or their clients.

The following is a checklist of items that need to be included in your Request of Mediation:

1. Request for Mediation form detailing the amount of the claim

2. Agreement to Mediate, signed and dated

3. Exhibit I detailing the facts that give rise to the claim

4. Mediation Officer Selection Form completed, signed, and dated

5. Designation of Counsel form completed, signed, and dated

6. Filing Fee of $150 made payable to Sierra Nevada REALTORS®

Failure to submit all the documents in this packet in a timely manner, can delay the process. The information will be forwarded to the Respondent(s) and/or their REALTOR(S)®. Please note that the mediation process is voluntary, and that Respondent(s) have 21 days from date of notification by the Association for a request to mediate, to respond to the request. If the Respondent(s) agree to the Request for Mediation, a mediation conference will be scheduled.

If you have any questions about this packet and/or the process. Please contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Katie Fletcher, C2EX, AWHD

Vice-President of Operations

Agreement to Mediate

The undersigned agree that they are involved in a contractual dispute defined by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics or in a specific non-contractual dispute as outlined in Standard of Practice 17-4.

The undersigned agree to submit this dispute to mediation in accordance with the mediation guidelines, as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the Sierra Nevada REALTORS®. Any agreement signed by the parties, pursuant to the mediation conference, shall be binding.

As party to the mediation process, I understand and agree to the following items:

Parties to mediation may withdraw from the process at any point prior to reaching an agreement. Parties to mediation that do not reach an agreement shall be free to pursue arbitration of the dispute in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association of REALTORS®. The parties acknowledge that the mediator is not providing legal representation, legal advice, or legal services, and that the parties are advised of their right to be represented by counsel at the mediation and also of their right to obtain legal advice (if counsel are not at the mediation) before signing any final settlement agreement.

Any offers of settlement that were not accepted or any suggested resolution proposed by the Mediation Officer that was not accepted will not be introduced as evidence nor considered in any manner should the matter require arbitration by the Association's Professional Standards Committee. However, if the parties agree to a settlement of the dispute, and the settlement is reduced to writing and has been signed by all the parties, the matter shall be considered resolved, and shall not be the subject of a subsequent arbitration hearing. If either of the parties fails to abide by the terms of the settlement, the matter may not be arbitrated; instead, the other party should be encouraged to have the settlement agreement judicially enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction.

No aspect of this mediation conference shall be relied upon or introduced as evidence in any ethics, arbitration, judicial, or other proceeding, including but not limited to: views expressed, or suggestions made by a party with respect to a possible settlement of any party thereto. No privilege shall be affected by disclosures made during meditation. Disclosures of any records, reports, or other documents received or prepared by the Association of Mediation Officer shall not be compelled. Neither the Association nor the Mediation Officer shall be compelled to disclose or testify in any proceeding as to information disclosed or representations made during the mediation or communication to the Mediator in confidence. Neither the Mediation Officer, the Sierra Nevada REALTORS®, the Nevada State Association of REALTOR® nor the National Association of REALTORS® or any of its Member Boards shall be deemed "necessary parties" in any judicial proceedings related to mediation under this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that the mediation proceedings will not be recorded and that weapons of any type are prohibited.

Are the circumstances giving rise to this request for Mediation the subject of civil or criminal litigation or in any proceeding before the state real estate licensing authority or any other state or federal regulatory or administrative agency?
