

Raised in Carson City, NV, where my family established our roots and built their business, I developed an early interest in the world of commerce. Immersed in the family business from a young age, I was inspired to pursue a bachelor's degree in Business Marketing Management. This provided me with the strategic and creative skills needed to tackle business challenges effectively.

I had the privilege of running our family business for over 20 years, where I developed my leadership skills and learned the importance of fostering relationships with customers and the community. Managing the business allowed me to blend tradition with innovation, driving growth while maintaining the personal touch our customers valued.

Throughout my real estate career, I've been driven by a passion for marketing and a commitment to excellence, always striving to deliver value and exceed expectations. My journey has taught me the power of perseverance, the importance of adaptability, and the joy of building something meaningful.
