

Tammy Mazziliano Bio

I'm thrilled to be considered for a director position with the Sierra Nevada Realtors (SNR), representing my fellow members. My journey has been shaped by a deep entrepreneurial spirit and a passion for serving others, both in business and in life.

My career began at the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in San Francisco, where I majored in Marketing & Business. At 25, I took a leap of faith and opened a retail store and salon in St. Helena, CA. For 15 years, I balanced the roles of wife, mother to three amazing sons, and business owner, growing my venture into a thriving enterprise that I eventually sold.

Transitioning into real estate was a natural next step for me. I've been licensed in California for over a decade and obtained my Nevada Real Estate license after my husband and I made Dayton, Nevada, our home three years ago. Real estate has always been a passion of mine, and I'm deeply committed to this industry and the community we serve.

In my free time, I enjoy spending time with positive, joyful people, creating fabulous memories, traveling, cruising, organizing, and embracing creative and entrepreneurial pursuits. These experiences have enriched my life and fueled my dedication to supporting others in our community.

As a candidate for the director position, I'm eager to bring my business acumen, leadership skills, and passion for real estate to serve my fellow members of SNR. I believe in the power of collaboration and am committed to representing your interests with integrity, enthusiasm, and a deep commitment to the future of our industry.
